

HIGHLY CAPABLE STUDENT PROGRAMS

In accordance with the need to develop the special abilities of each student, the district shall offer appropriate instructional programs to meet the needs of highly capable students of school age. The nature of such programs shall include, but not be limited to, the following objectives:

- A. Expansion of academic attainments and intellectual skills;
- B. Stimulation of intellectual curiosity, independence and responsibility;
- C. Development of a positive attitude toward self and others; and
- D. Development of originality and creativity.

The superintendent shall establish procedures consistent with state guidelines for nominating, assessing and selecting children of demonstrated achievement or potential ability in terms of general intellectual ability, academic aptitude and creative or productive thinking.
